1. Applicability

These terms and conditions cover the full-time degree programmes of the University and are applicable to all students enrolled in the respective programmes (MA Development, MA Education, MA Early Childhood Care and Education, MSc Climate Change and Sustainability, MA Economics, BA Honours Programmes, and BSc Honours Programmes, and Integrated Teacher Education Programme (ITEP)). This document includes all details pertaining to fixing fee components and amounts, fee revisions, fee-related communication, handling delay in fee payments, and actions relating to fee delay or default. It is important that students read and understand these terms and conditions and the relevant information on the University website before completing enrolment. Once students enroll, they will be bound by the University's fee policy, procedures, terms, and conditions.

2. Fixing of Fees and Revision of Fees

The Fee Regulation Committee of the University formed in line with Chapter V – Clause 37 of the Azim Premji University Act 2010, is the approving authority for Tuition Fees. Any proposed revision to the Tuition fee is presented to the committee and on approval, the revised fee is implemented. Fixing and revision of all other components (including Accommodation) are done by the Registrar and Finance Officer of the University.

3. Fee Components and Fee Structure – Applicable to Students Joining in 2026

There are three fee components; Tuition fees, Accommodation Charges and Food Charges.

3.2 Accommodation Charges

Note: These charges are payable to the University

Full-year accommodation charges for all programmes : INR 80,000 (for Academic Year 2026-27)

- Accommodation charges apply only to students residing in the University hostel. The first two years of the undergraduate programmes are fully residential, and students are required to stay on campus. For other students, staying in the University hostel is subject to availability.
- PG male students who are eligible for accommodation financial assistance will receive an accommodation allowance of up to INR 80,000 per year, disbursed in 12 equal monthly instalments. Students on partial financial assistance will receive the allowance in proportion to their approved financial assistance percentage.
- Accommodation charges are subject to nominal inflationary increases in subsequent years.
- Students availing University accommodation must commit for a full semester and pay the entire accommodation fee.

3.3 Food Charges

Note: These charges are payable to the Vendors

Students staying in the University hostel:

- Food subscription is compulsory for all students staying in the University hostel. The subscription plan covers Breakfast, Lunch, Snacks, and Dinner (4 meals per day, 7 days a week).
- Food subscription charges for a semester would be between INR 25,000 – 35,000, depending on the on-campus duration for specific programmes. The on-campus duration of classes varies across programmes and ranges from 17 to 25 weeks, including mid-semester breaks where applicable.
- Students joining early for the summer pathway programme may incur additional food charges.
- The exact amount to be paid will be intimated to each student, based on the duration of their respective programme.
- If a student plans to be off-campus during a mid-semester break, the food subscription may be paused by providing sufficient advance notice, as per the food subscription enrollment guidelines (available at the time of subscription). The corresponding amount will be carried forward. The responsibility for pausing and resuming the subscription lies solely with the student.
- Students receiving food financial assistance from the University, as specified in their offer letter, are required to avail the University food subscription plan covering Breakfast, Lunch, Evening Snacks, and Dinner on campus. The University will make payments directly to the food vendor. The food subscription is valid only during campus stay and does not cover fieldwork, internships, or any other non-campus components of the programme. Financial assistance will not be given as allowance.

Students not staying in the University hostel:

- Students who are eligible for food financial assistance may choose from the following two options:

Option 1: Eligible students will receive the approved monthly financial assistance allowance for food. Students may use this amount towards food expenses, either on campus or outside.

Option 2: Students may opt for the University food subscription plan covering Breakfast, Lunch, Evening Snacks, and Dinner on campus. The University will make payments directly to the food vendor. The food subscription is valid only during campus stay and does not cover fieldwork, internships, or any other non-campus components of the programme.

	Annual allowance	Monthly payout
Option 1	INR 47,880	INR 3,990
Option 2	Food card - all 4 meals on campus. No payout

3.4 Additional Expenses

Note: These expenses are to be borne by the student

- Students must bear expenses for travel, food, and stay during fieldwork. Financial support may be available as per the University's fieldwork financial assistance policy.
- Students may incur out-of-pocket expenses for items for personal use. The University will not cover any of these expenses.

Note: The Summer Pathways programme is provided free of charge, including both tuition and accommodation, for all students who receive an invitation.

4. Fee Structure for Students Repeating the Semester

Students who are required to repeat a semester due to incomplete academic requirements must pay the fees applicable to the batch they are joining. In case of an extension of study, applicable charges will be as follows.

- Registering for up to 2 courses: 50% of the semester tuition fee is applicable.
- More than 2 courses: Full semester tuition fee.
- Students availing University accommodation must commit for a full semester and pay the entire accommodation fee.

5. Financial Assistance

- The terms and conditions governing financial assistance awarded to students are mentioned in the Financial Assistance Agreement signed between the University and the students. Please read the document carefully.
- Students must abide by all rules/regulations/guidelines/policies established by the University and any violation may result in cancellation of financial assistance.
- Students are bound by confidentiality with respect to financial assistance unless it is required to be disclosed for reasons of availing loans or scholarships from financial and other institutions.
- Financial assistance is valid for the standard duration of the programme as mentioned in the offer letter. If a student takes longer than the standard duration to complete the programme because of any reason, the student is expected to pay the additional amount. Exceptions may be considered by the University at its sole discretion.

- No requests for financial assistance revision will be accepted after the commencement of the programme.
- Accommodation financial assistance (as mentioned in the offer letter) will be given as fee waiver or accommodation allowance (Please refer to section 3.2 and 3.3)
 - Students who have been given accommodation in the University residence will receive fee waivers as per their financial assistance percentage.
 - Students who are not allotted accommodation in the University residence will receive an accommodation allowance, with the applicable financial assistance percentage applied.
- Food financial assistance, as mentioned in the offer letter, will be paid directly by the University to the campus food vendor or paid as food allowance.

6. Fee Communication

- The current fee structure is available on the University website and is also mentioned in admission related communication.
- The letter of admission offer provided by the University, prior to the student registering for admission, mentions the complete fee details and percentage of financial assistance. Acceptance of the offer letter is deemed as acceptance of all fee-related conditions.
- Prior to start of each semester, the University will intimate students regarding fee details and due dates and method of payment.
- Students can directly download the fee receipts from the campus solution software.

7. Payment of Fees

- Students are solely responsible for paying fees by the due date and submitting proof of payment. The University is not responsible for reminders; lack of reminders will not be accepted as a reason for late payment.
- For students availing educational loans:
 - Students must ensure all documentation is submitted for timely disbursement.
 - If the loan is not disbursed by the end of the first semester, the student will be treated as self-funded and the student will be required to pay the

- applicable fees directly to the University.
- If the loan amount is disbursed by the bank after the student has already made the payment, the student may either continue with the loan and receive a refund of the amount paid to the University, or choose to cancel the loan and have the disbursed loan amount refunded, as applicable.
- Any shortfall in loan amount must be paid by the student.

8. Action for Fee Default or Non-Intimation of Delay

- Non-payment of fees or failure to respond to reminders by the due date will be considered a default and may lead to action. The University reserves the right to take one or more of the following actions in case of delay or default:
 - Withhold enrollment to the semester / courses
 - Levy late fees or penalty with interest
 - Withdraw any or all the services / facilities provided by the University
 - Withdrawal from University residence accommodation
 - Stop financial assistance provided by the University
 - Adjust fee dues against any other amounts payable to the student
 - Initiate legal proceedings
- Students will be formally notified in writing of any such actions.

9. Refund of Fees for New Joinees

- All withdrawal requests prior to registration must be made by raising a query in the Admission Portal.
- All withdrawal requests post registration must be made in writing to Student Helpdesk.

The refund of fees (aligned to UGC recommendations) will be processed based on the table given below.

Tuition fees (Applicable for UG and PG students)
Receipt of refund request	Up to 30 Sep 2026	1 Oct 2026 to 31 Oct 2026	After 31 Oct 2026
Refund status	Full refund	Refund after deduction of Rs.1000 as processing fees	No refund

Accommodation charges (Applicable for those granted accommodation by the University)
Receipt of refund request	Until completion of online registration	After completion of online registration and before Physical registration	After the Physical Date registration (as applicable for the batch)
Refund status	Full refund	Refund after 10% deduction	No refund*

* Accommodation charges are collected on a semester basis, and rooms are reserved upon payment. Withdrawal after physical registration may result in another eligible student losing the opportunity for accommodation.

Note: If the UGC issues a revised refund policy later, the University will comply accordingly.

Refund of Food Charges

Once the formal exit process is completed, the Food service provider will process the refund after deducting the pro-rate food charges and any applicable nominal deduction as per the food subscription guidelines.

10. Refund for Students Withdrawing Mid-Semester (After 1st semester)

10.1 Refund of Tuition Fees

The following table specifies the Tuition Fee refund applicable in case a student drops out in between semesters. This is subject to completion of the formal exit process.

SI No	Time of Withdrawal	Applicable Refund
1	15 days or less after the date of registration of the semester	80% of the tuition fees paid by the student
2	30 days or less, but more than 15 days of the date of registration of the semester	50% of the tuition fees paid by the student
3	More than 30 days after the date of registration of the semester	No refund tuition payable to the student

10.2 Refund of Accommodation Charges

Note: Students stand to forfeit the entire semester's accommodation charges in case they drop out after the semester starts and will not be eligible for any refund. If the University asks students to vacate due to government orders, refunds will be processed after applicable deductions. Refunds in special cases (e.g., medical conditions or disciplinary issues) will be decided on a case-by-case basis by the University.

10.3 Refund of Food Charges

Once the formal exit process is completed, the Food service provider will process the refund after deducting the pro-rate food charges and any applicable nominal deduction as per the food subscription guidelines.

10.4 Other Refunds

- For students on 100% financial assistance, the initial fee paid prior to registration will be refunded by the end of 1st semester, provided there are no other dues.
- For students on 100% financial assistance withdrawing from the programme mid-term then there will be no refund of the initial fee paid.
- For students availing loan, any fee refund applicable will be done, only after the full loan amount applicable for all semesters is disbursed to the University by the bank.

11. Policy Review and Updates

This policy will be reviewed periodically to ensure accuracy and alignment with institutional requirements and regulatory guidelines. The University reserves the right to update, modify, or revise the policy as needed. Any changes will be communicated to students in a timely manner through official channels.

12. Signing the Undertaking

Students are expected to read the Fee policy document carefully and sign the Undertaking document. In case the student is under 18 years of age, parent / guardian of the student should sign the Undertaking.
